Comenius-Marey's News

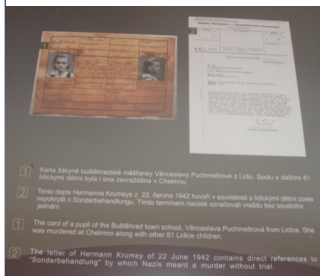

Tuesday, March 27th

After lunch at the school cafétéria we went to the site of Lidice, a village that was burnt down by Nazi troops after the killing of a German military leader by the Czech.

The men were killed and the women and children deported to camps. Only a few children survived and came back.

Only a few children survived and came back.

We were then driven through a vast disused steel-industry site in Kladno that cannot be dismantled because it is highly toxic.

We also visited an animal rescue centre where injured wild animals get cured before being released in a natural reserve. We saw sheep, geese, rabbits and owls.

Then we were given explanations about a low-energy building that welcomes children to teach them wildlife preservation.
